The First Coffee House in England in the year 1650

The historic venue of the Grand Café is the site of the first Coffee Shop in England dating back to the year 1650. We are proud to continue the tradition of those who first brought coffee to England and Oxford in a beautiful venue which has for many years been a focus for hospitality and entertainment for the residents of the City of Oxford and visitors from around the world. You can read more about the history of The Grand Café on our website.

We offer a wide range of our coffees and loose leaf teas as well as our tea and coffee cups and plates for you to buy as a souvenir of your visit and to enjoy at home. Please see our boards or ask your server for details.

To share your experience of The Grand Café you can buy Gift Vouchers for any value to give to friends and family.

Whether it is to celebrate a wedding, birthday or other special occasion or to host an event for your business The Grand Café is available for Private Events in the evening when you will enjoy our wide range of classic and modern cocktails and hand made canapés. Please speak to the Manager or visit our website for more details. You can buy all our products and gift vouchers today or buy online on our website.
